Danger in Fires.

With so many local people now engaged in burning leaves, Fire Chief Ringold today issued a warning to householders to be careful not to allow fires to spread. There is danger of leaves glowing from a fire into other combustible material and starting fires.

Special Trains Arranged.

It is announced today that the special train for Hermiston, to the hog and dairy show, will leave here at 9:30 tomorrow morning, returning leaving Hermiston at 7:30 p. m. On Saturday a special will leave for Walla Walla at 9:30; returning leaving Walla Walla at 11:30 p. m.

Wants Light at P. O.

Postmaster T. J. Tweedy last evening asked the council to install an arc light at the corner of West Alta and Garden streets on the postoffice corner, declaring that many patrons of the office are complaining at the darkness of the corner. The matter was referred to the light committee.

Farmers Are Seeding.

A large majority of the farmers on Adams rural route No. 2 are sowing their 1917 wheat crop. Among the men seeding are Luke Reed, James Potts, Art Douglas, S. Reimer on the Pearl Hales place, O. H. Reeder, S. B. Rothrock and J. C. Holcomb. J. V. Walter will finish the seeding of 120 acres today.

Harney County for Normal.

"I am sure this section will give your cause an almost unanimous vote in favor of the new normal school," writes W. M. Sutton, principal of the schools of Burns to a friend in this city. Prof. Sutton states that the Harney county institute endorsed the initiative normal amendment and that the endorsement went through with a whoop.

Medal On Display.

The diamond medal to be given to the winner of the declamation contest at the W. C. T. U. convention this evening is today being displayed in the windows of the Peoples Warehouse. In connection with the contest this evening the ladies wish it understood that there will be no admission charges but that a silver offering will be taken.

Sentiment for Normal.

In a letter to the East Oregonian from Salem where he has been attending the Baptist convention Rev. R. C. Clevenger says he finds considerable sentiment there for the Pendleton normal measure. In an address of welcome to the Baptists, Governor Withycombe took a stand in opposition to the brewers amendment, saying "I say to you that we must defeat that brewer's amendment this fall."

So O'Brien Is Mad.

T. F. O'Brien, local O-W. R. & N. magnate, is mad today because some time during last night a party drove a light wheeled buggy over the central parking on the north side of the depot. In driving over the park the vehicle struck one of the little trees recently set out there and destroyed the tree. Mr. O'Brien is striving today to learn the identity of the party so as to bring a criminal action.

Fire Sale Draws Hundreds.

Bond Bros., who suffered a serious fire loss recently, this morning opened their fire sale in the Judd building and there were hundreds of men and women in the first rush when the doors opened. Only a certain number were allowed to enter at once and the others took their place in line. As one customer left a special policeman allowed another to enter.

May Build Mill Here.

J. M. Hodges, the man who built and is now operating the flour mill at Pilot Rock, is in Pendleton today making an investigation which, he admits, may lead him to build a flouring mill in this city. He is manufacturing a high grade flour at Pilot Rock and, in case he puts up a mill here, he may either sell his Pilot Rock mill, move it here or continue to operate it along with the one here. Mr. Hodges states that conditions look very good here and that he believes he would have no difficulty in building up a market for any products of a new mill in this city. Mr. Hodges is accompanied by his wife on his trip here today.

Damage Suit Progressing.

The plaintiff in the case of Bledsoe vs. D. W. R. & N. Co., has been submitting testimony today by which she hopes to securing damages against the railroad company for the death of her son, John Morgan. The principal witness so far has been Angelo Geronzo, an Italian, who was one of the men accompanying the deceased at the time of his death. His testimony was that young Morgan was kicked by the brakeman from the train. The defendant's attorneys cross questioned him severely, tracing his past life and the witness showed an astonishing memory for the detail of his travels over the country. Sam Davis, another companion, is to follow on the stand. Mrs. Bledsoe, the mother, testified to the habits of her son. J. H. West and Coroner J. T. Brown testified as to their investigation of the young man's death.

ARRESTED AS FIRST AMERICAN SNIPER

STANLEY MYDOSHS

Stanley Mydosh, son of the owner of the hall in Bayonne, N. J., where the Standard Oil strikers, who have come into conflict with the police there with a loss of several lives and the wounding of many men and women, is charged by the police of that Jersey town as being the first American sniper. They took him in hand saying he had used a pair of glasses from the roof of the hall to pick out policemen at long distance and shoot them with a rifle.

2. Be it Further Resolved, That, while we give our loyal support to the W. C. T. U., local, state and national, and welcome new workers to our ranks, that we reach out with loving sympathy and cooperation to all efforts by individuals and organizations calculated to make this world a safer, better, happier place and establish the kingdom in the hearts of men.

4. That until Nov. 1 we pray without ceasing and work without tiring for the defeat of the brewer's measure and the passage of the Oregon dry bill.

5. That we deeply appreciate the loving thought and care that has been given by the W. C. T. U. of Pendleton and Umatilla county for their comfort and pleasure in their beautiful city; to give tangible evidence of this appreciation and our recognition of the splendid possibilities of this section of our state when all Oregon is really dry, be it resolved that we heartily endorse the initiative measure to establish an eastern Oregon normal school.

6. Be it further resolved that we heartily thank the Pendleton chamber of commerce for their hospitality, the trustees of the convention church for its use, the ladies of the M. E. church for their beautiful hospitality, all of those who contributed to the pleasure and comfort to the convention and to the citizens of Pendleton for their many courtesies.

7. Resolved, that we do deeply appreciate the publicity for W. C. T. U. work so generously given to convention news by the Pendleton press, and that we hereby authorize our press representative to convey our deep appreciation to them.

8. Resolved, that the white ribbon work and its workers have been strengthened because of this convention; that its inspiration, love and fellowship will abide with us throughout the years. (Signed.)

GETS GREETING.

SOUTH BEND, Oct. 19.—Eight thousand greeted President Wilson here. Children waved flags. Automobile factory employees lined the tracks and stood on roofs and balconies. The train was an hour late and it was raining. Wilson said:

"I have forgotten how to make a campaign speech. My record is made up. If I made a speech I'd have to tell you what I think of myself. These cordial receptions are delightful. I thank you from the bottom of my heart."

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—Returning from a trip to the democratic headquarters at Chicago, Chairman McCormick predicted a "landslide" of western states into the Wilson column. He declared he carefully investigated the situation and found conditions surprisingly favorable. He claimed a big democratic majority in Wisconsin and Nebraska which failed to respond to Hughes' visit. Missouri and Indiana are safely in the Wilson column although the republicans are fighting their hardest. All is over but the shouting in Ohio.

North Dakota and Kansas are democratic with the certainty of reelecting every congressman. McCormick said he doubted there was a single Hughes state west of the Mississippi.
